“Winemaker Andrew Vingiello continues to make a bevy of brilliant wines. They’re always packed with fruit, yet never lose typicity or soul.”

WINE ADVOCATE

Showing more spice, dried earth, peppered meat and a core of both red and black fruit, the 2014 Pinot Noir Turner Vineyard saw 25% whole clusters and 11 months in 50% new French oak. Rounded, supple and nicely textured, yet with notable tannin, the stems add a nice component here without overpowering the fruit. Already delicious, it will nevertheless be better this time next year and drink nicely through 2024.
