

a.p. vin

2016 RIDGETOP VINEYARD PINOT NOIR

APPELLATION: Sonoma Coast

REGION: Sonoma County

Owned by Fred Schrader and Thomas Brown and managed perfectly by Ulysses Valdez, the Ridgetop Vineyard is located within a few miles of the Pacific Ocean in the town of Annapolis at 1100 feet above sea level. The maritime influence effectively moderates high temperatures during the summer and fall while its location on the eastern side of the first coastal ridge protects it from being engulfed by fog, enabling the vines to produce ripe, tropical fruit with ample acidity.

WINEMAKER: Andrew Vingiello

CLONE: 667, 777 & 115

BARREL AGING: 11 months French Oak - 50% New

HARVESTED: September 17th, 2016

STYLE: Unfined and Unfiltered

CLOSURE: Stelvin screw cap

BOTTLED: August 2017

PRODUCTION: 150 cases

ALCOHOL: 14.5%